

Liz Fusco is an award-winning Long Island artist, whose work is primarily contemporary realism. Liz paints in both oils and watercolor with subject matter being still life, landscape and Botanical Illustration. She currently teaches classes at The Art League of Long Island and The Atelier in Saint James.

Liz holds a B.F.A. and M.A. from LIU Post and is a Certified Botanical Artist from New York Botanical Gardens. Visit her website at lizfuscoart.com and follow her on social media @lizfuscoart